IN SEARCH OF HEALTH

ESSAYS IN MEDICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

edited by

Spaar van der Geest and Klaas W. van der Veen

Uitgave 17

Vakgroep Culturele Antropologie en Niet-westerse Sociologie Algemeen (Cansa)
Antropologisch-Sociologische Centrum
Universiteit van Amsterdam
1979
CONTENTS

PREFACE

INTRODUCTION

Sjaak van der Geest

1. The field of medical anthropology
2. Medical anthropology versus medical sociology
3. Anthropologists and medical aid
4. The essays

Notes
References

THE INFANCY OF EDWARD SHELONGA

An extended case from the Zambian skoya

Wim M.J. van Binsbergen

1. Introduction
2. The problem and the method
3. Background
4. The extended case
5. Edward’s case: an artefact?
6. Interpretation of the extended case
7. Conclusion

Notes
References

POSTSCRIPT: THE ROLE OF COGNITION

Wim M.J. van Binsbergen

Notes
References

THE DOCTOR AND THE HERBALIST: VIEWS BY GHANAIAN SCHOOL PUPILS

Wolf Bleek

1. Introduction
2. The research
3. The Akan
4. Various types of healers
5. The doctor viewed by school pupils
6. The herbalist viewed by school pupils
7. The concept of "medicine"
8. The doctor and the herbalist: a comparison
9. Conclusion

Notes
References

TRADITIONAL BONE SETTING IN KWASHI, GHANA

Ingrid Tijssen

1. Introduction
2. Material and discussion
3. Summary and conclusion

Notes
References

A MEDICAL FOLLOW-UP STUDY

Adam van Enk

Introduction
Material
Methods and results
Discussion and conclusion
Summary
Appendix 1
Appendix 2
References

CASTES, POVERTY AND DISEASE: SOME OBSERVATIONS IN AN INDIAN TOWN

Loes Schenk

1. Introduction
2. The setting
3. Some observations at Dhobi Talav
4. The case of a sick boy
5. Concluding remarks

Notes
References

WESTERN MEDICAL CARE IN AN INDIAN SETTING: THE VALSAD-DISTRICT IN GUJARAT

Klaus W. van der Veen

1. Introduction
2. General characteristics of the medical facilities in the South Gujarat-region
3. Causes for under-utilization of state health services
4. The western view of the doctor-patient relationship
5. Many-stranded and single-stranded relationships
6. The Indian view of the doctor-patient relationship
7. Conclusion

Note
References